The Cosmetic Industry (Beauty Industry or Personal Care Industry) can be broken down into 5 Segments : Hair Care, Skin Care, Fragrance, Make-up, Other. About 20% of all Cosmetic Products sold are for the Hair. Shampoos make up the Vast Majority of this Market since almost everyone uses Shampoo. Other Significant Market Segments include Conditioners, Styling Products, Hair Color, and Relaxers. The Range of Products that are offered for the Skin Care Market are much more diverse than the Hair Care Market. Skin Care makes up about 27% of the Total Cosmetic Industry and includes Skin Moisturizers, Cleansers, Facial Products, Anti-Acne, and Anti-Aging Products. Of all the Cosmetics, Skin Care Products can be some of the Most Expensive.

The Color Cosmetic Market represents about 15% of the Cosmetic Industry and includes anything from Lipstick to Nail Polish. Included are things like Blush, Eyeshadow, Foundation, etc. The Array of Products is vast and the Number of Color Variations are Practically Infinite. You can spend a lot of time as a Cosmetic Chemist working on New Shades of Familiar Products. The Fine Fragrance Market Segment has really taken a Hit in the last few years but it still makes up about 10% of the Cosmetic Industry so some Companies are still making Money. The "Other" Category represents 23% of the Cosmetic Industry and is made up of Things like Toothpaste, Deodorants, Sunscreens, Depilatories, and other Personal Care Products not yet mentioned. Actually, many of these Products could fall under one of the Categories already mentioned.

The Cosmetics Industry is one of the Rare Sectors in which France continues to be a World Leader. French Perfumes and Cosmetics are among the Best French "Ambassadors" abroad, where "Made in France" has a Cachet of Quality and Desirability. Two Key Players, L'Oréal and LVMH (Louis Vuitton Moët Hennessy), dominate this Very Competitive Market. The High Level of Demand is matched by Constant Innovation in the French Cosmetics Market. France spends more on Cosmetics Research and Development than any other European Country. New Trends and Brands are continuously entering the French Market aiming to attract and acquire New Consumers. This is why, Companies should put Enormous Importance on Product Updates and Presentations with a High Level of Quality. Although this is a Very Difficult and Competitive Market, there are some Market Opportunities for U.S. Niche Brands.

Organic Cosmetics are a Booming Market in France. Initially, many Organic Cosmetics were designed for People suffering from Skin Problems, such as Eczema or Allergies. Increasingly, Organic Cosmetics are positioned as High Quality and Premium Products and draw a Wide Range of Consumers. Sun Care Products have become much more Complex, now including Spot-Prevention, Tinted Creams in addition to the expected UVA and UVB Protection. The Competition between Manufacturers has increased over the past few years in order to gain Market Shares. The Ethnic Cosmetic Market appears to be a Great Opportunity in France due to an increase in the Purchasing Power of Ethnic Communities. The Well-Known Brands are beginning to dedicate more Products to this Growing Market. Men's Products : more Men are purchasing Beauty Products and Anti-Aging Treatments. The Male Grooming Market has experienced Double Digit Growth Rates in Several Segments over the past Decade. Spa and Wellness Products still remain one of the Most Dynamic Markets with a significant Increase over the past few Years....
