

UNESCO Director-General to focus on heritage & culture during 1st official visit to Uzbekistan on 26 and 27 August

Paris, Washington DC, 16.08.2019, 16:57 Time

USPA NEWS - Audrey Azoulay, the Director-General of UNESCO, will undertake an official visit to Uzbekistan to take part in the International Conference on the Preservation of Tangible and Intangible Cultural Heritage, alongside Uzbekistan's President Shavkat Mirziyoyev, on 26 August. A significant number of culture and tourism ministers from across the region and beyond are also expected to participate. At a time when increasing mass tourism, urbanization and environmental crises are placing added pressures on many sites, the Director-General will underline the critical role for all countries in safeguarding the world's cultural heritage, based upon the World Heritage Convention, the most important global instrument for the protection of tangible heritage. She will also emphasize the need to better integrate existing tools for all forms of heritage, including intangible, natural and documentary heritage.
